Abstract: In this talk, I will present the projects that we develop at Youth Innovation Laboratory (You-i Lab) with the help of talented young people. The projects integrate multidisciplinary teams of scientists, engineers, and specialists in humanities and medicine to address problems that matter to people in Mexico. I will also present two of the recent technological projects that we are currently conducting that relate to the COVID-19 pandemics and air pollution in Mexican cities. In particular, I will describe my collaboration with the L2TI Lab researchers at the University Sorbonne Paris Nord.
